

jewishlink.news/community-news/33850-children-s-book-reading-prompts-legal-action-against-highland-park

ADP Employment TimeClock Email Email LinkedIn BN Clients Drive PIXMOLE Quickbase CRM State Business Entity Research Resources Clients CHECK DAILY! Pom...

---

You are here: Home > Community News > Individual and Communal Thinking

Children's Book Reading Prompts Legal Action Against Highland Park

By Elizabeth Kratz/JNS | October 13, 2019

Email

A controversy that began last summer, pitting suburban community library-event planners against various Palestinian sympathizers against a Jewish community, is now moving to the legal arena.

The almost 20-year-old Central Jersey Jewish Public Affairs Committee (CJJ-PAC)—a pro-Israel advocacy organization headed by

Advertisement

Learn more
The Good Feet Store

Advertisement

3 Toxic Foods for Dogs: The One Meat You Should Never Feed Your Dog

Promoted Content Find Out More

MOST POPULAR COMMUNITY ARTICLES

Bayit Association of NJ Is Born!

Young Israel of Teaneck Shabbat With Cantor Netanel Hershtik Returns

Manny and Simon Klein

Sign up now!

A controversy that began last summer, pitting suburban community library-event planners against various Palestinian sympathizers against a Jewish community, is now moving to the legal arena.

The almost 20-year-old Central Jersey Jewish Public Affairs Committee (CJJ-PAC)—a pro-Israel advocacy organization headed by